Following publication of this article, an error has been identified in the last 5 lines of page 60. The citation "Moore et al. 2008", which was cited twice in this sentence, should be replaced with the citation "Jahr et al. 2008". The corrected sentence is shown below:

Another PolyHb prepared from bovine hemoglobin has been tested extensively in surgical patients (Jahr et al. 2008). South Africa, with its problem of HIV in donor blood has already approved the routine use of this bovine PolyHb in patients a number of years ago (Jahr et al. 2008).
